

Advancing Innovation Through Strategic Partnerships: MoU with Sunway University and Sunway Multicare Pharmacy

On 13 April 2026, Novugen marked the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Sunway University and Sunway Multicare Pharmacy. This strategic partnership brings together industry and academia to drive innovation and deliver impactful healthcare solutions—supporting our mission to accelerate access to affordable, high-quality, and cutting-edge medicines for patients.

At Novugen, meaningful innovation is built through collaboration. By combining our technological and manufacturing capabilities with the academic excellence of Sunway University and the community reach of Sunway Multicare Pharmacy, we are creating a stronger, robust ecosystem to deliver greater impact for patients and the broader healthcare system.

This partnership reflects our continued commitment to quality, efficacy, and patient-centric innovation, building on the strong foundation of collaborations we have established. Looking ahead, we will continue to expand these partnerships—fostering innovation, strengthening capabilities, and advancing Malaysia’s pharmaceutical ecosystem for the future.

We look forward to the progress and breakthroughs we will achieve together.
